generator surface. If during cleaning, the surface does become free of calcium/mineral deposits, add plain tap water to the surface and allow it to boil off. If necessary, repeat this process to create a thin coating of calcium/mineral deposits.

PLEASE NOTE: In soft water areas, it may be necessary to add a small amount of lime to the generator surface to season it. This will ensure proper steaming by producing a thin coating of calcium/mineral deposits on the generator surface.

Seasoning mixture consists of $\frac{3}{4}$ ounce baking soda, $\frac{3}{4}$ ounce lime mixed with 1 quart of water. Stir mixture and pour $\frac{1}{4}$ " deep onto the hot generator surface. After mixture is converted to steam, the remaining loose powder can be removed.

3. Plug the power cord into the outlet.
